

Château de Rochemorin Blanc

Description:

Château de Rochemorin Blanc is a refined white wine from Pessac-Léognan, Bordeaux's premier region for barrel-aged Sauvignon Blanc. Owned by the Lurton family, this estate combines tradition with modern precision to produce elegant, terroir-driven wines. The grapes are grown on gravel soils that enhance freshness and minerality, while fermentation and ageing in French oak barrels add texture and aromatic complexity.

Tasting notes:

Aromas of citrus blossom, white peach, and subtle toast. The palate is vibrant and structured, with flavours of grapefruit, lemon curd, crushed stone, and gentle vanilla, finishing with refreshing acidity and finesse.

Allergens: Contains sulphites.

Dish Pairing: Grilled sea bass, asparagus risotto, roast chicken, goat's cheese, crab salad, scallop ceviche

Talking Point:

White wines from Pessac-Léognan, such as this one, are among Bordeaux's best-kept secrets—offering the richness of oak-aged whites with the zest and clarity of Sauvignon Blanc.
