

Domaine de Pierre Touraine Gamay

Description:

Domaine de Pierre Touraine Gamay is a red wine from the Touraine appellation in the Loire Valley, made from 100% Gamay grapes. This estate combines traditional winemaking with careful vineyard management to produce a fresh, vibrant wine that highlights the bright fruit and easy-drinking character typical of Gamay.

Tasting notes:

Aromas of red cherry, raspberry, and wild strawberries. The palate is light to medium-bodied with flavours of fresh red berries, subtle pepper, and a touch of earthiness, supported by soft tannins and a crisp finish.

Allergens: Contains sulphites.

Dish Pairing:

- Charcuterie and pâté
- Grilled chicken
- Mushroom dishes
- Light pasta with tomato-based sauces
- Soft cheeses

Talking Point:

Domaine de Pierre is a family-run estate known for its hands-off approach, allowing the Gamay grapes to express their purest fruit character. The vineyard benefits from the cool, chalky soils of the Touraine region, which help retain vibrant acidity and add a subtle mineral edge. This wine stands out for its bright freshness and aromatic clarity, reflecting the unique terroir rather than relying on heavy extraction or oak ageing.
