

Pacifico Sur Merlot

Description:

Pacifico Sur Merlot is a smooth, fruit-forward red wine from Chile's Central Valley. Made with grapes grown in a warm, dry climate ideal for ripening Merlot, this wine is approachable and easy to enjoy. It's a reliable choice for everyday drinking or casual meals, offering good value and consistent quality.

Tasting notes:

Aromas of ripe plum, black cherry, and a touch of vanilla. The palate is soft and medium-bodied with flavours of red berries, cocoa, and gentle spice, finishing with light tannins.

Allergens: Contains sulphites.

Dish Pairing: Grilled sausages, pasta with tomato sauce, roast chicken, cheddar cheese, mushroom burgers, lentil stew

Talking Point:

Pacifico Sur means "Southern Pacific," a nod to Chile's coastal influence, which helps keep the grapes fresh and the wine balanced.
