

Marmot La Brande

Description:

Marmot La Brande is a red Bordeaux wine produced by the Todeschini family. This blend typically includes Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon, offering a smooth and approachable expression of Bordeaux from a family-owned estate with deep roots in the region. Notably, this wine is crafted without added sulphites, emphasising natural winemaking techniques.

Tasting notes:

Aromas of ripe plum, black cherry, and subtle hints of cedar. The palate is medium-bodied with flavours of red and dark berries, gentle oak spice, and soft tannins, finishing with a clean, balanced finish.

Allergens: Contains naturally occurring sulphites.

Dish Pairing:

- Roast beef
- Duck confit
- Mature cheeses
- Grilled mushrooms
- Herb-roasted vegetables

Talking Point:

The Todeschini family has been involved in Bordeaux winemaking for several generations, with Marmot La Brande reflecting their commitment to crafting wines that balance tradition and accessibility. Producing this wine without added sulphites highlights their focus on natural winemaking and purity of flavour.
