

Sorbaiano Febo IGT Merlot

Description:

Sorbaiano Febo IGT Merlot is a supple and expressive red from Tuscany, crafted on the historic Sorbaiano estate. This wine highlights the adaptability of Merlot to the Tuscan climate, offering both richness and finesse in every glass.

Tasting notes:

Aromas of ripe plum, cherry, and sweet spice. The palate reveals flavours of blackberry, dark chocolate, and a hint of tobacco, with velvety tannins and a smooth, lingering finish.

Allergens: Contains sulphites.

Dish Pairing:

- Bistecca alla Fiorentina
- Wild mushroom risotto
- Aged pecorino
- Herb-roasted pork loin
- Aubergine parmigiana

Talking Point:

The Sorbaiano estate traces its roots back to Etruscan times, and Febo — named after the sun god — reflects the region's deep agricultural history. By choosing Merlot for this wine, Sorbaiano shows how an international grape can take on a distinctly Tuscan character, with bold fruit, Mediterranean warmth, and refined structure.
