

La Loyane L'Eclipse Sans Sulfites Ajoute

Description:

La Loyane L'Éclipse Sans Sulfites Ajoutés is a vibrant red from the Southern Rhône, produced without the addition of sulphites. This careful approach allows the wine's pure fruit character to shine, offering a fresh and expressive style that remains true to its origins.

Tasting notes:

Aromas of ripe red berries, black cherry, and a hint of spice. The palate is juicy and supple, with flavours of raspberry, plum, and soft herbs, supported by smooth tannins and a clean finish.

Allergens: Contains naturally occurring sulphites.

Dish Pairing:

- Grilled Mediterranean vegetables
- Roast chicken with thyme
- Charcuterie platter
- Soft cheeses
- Ratatouille

Talking Point:

La Loyane is a family-run estate in the Rhône, known for crafting wines that reflect both tradition and innovation. L'Éclipse is made without added sulphites, a demanding method that requires precision in the vineyard and cellar, resulting in a wine that expresses fruit purity and authenticity with every glass.