

Domaine de la Fourmone Ceps d'Or Vacqueyras (Magnum)

Description:

Domaine de la Fourmone's Ceps d'Or Vacqueyras is a robust red from the Southern Rhône, crafted from Grenache, Syrah, and Mourvèdre grown on stony, sun-soaked soils. The magnum format allows the wine to age gracefully, with greater complexity and integration over time. This cuvée is a fine representation of Vacqueyras' bold, structured style, offering both power and refinement.

Talking Point:

Domaine de la Fourmone has been family-owned for generations, and "Ceps d'Or" translates to "golden vines," a nod to the estate's prized old vines that give depth and concentration to the wine. The magnum format is ideal for ageing or sharing at a festive table.
