

Picpus Malbec Syrah

Description:

Picpus Malbec Syrah is a bold and approachable red from the south of France, bringing together the richness of Malbec with the spice and depth of Syrah. Made for easy enjoyment, it balances generous fruit with a supple, food-friendly structure.

Tasting notes:

Aromas of blackberry, plum, and violet. The palate shows flavours of dark cherry, black pepper, and a touch of cocoa, with smooth tannins and a rounded finish.

Allergens: Contains sulphites.

Dish Pairing:

- Grilled lamb chops
- Duck breast with cherry glaze
- Ratatouille
- Charcuterie and hard cheeses
- Roasted red pepper and tomato pasta

Talking Point:

Named after the historic Parisian quarter of Picpus, this wine nods to French tradition while delivering a modern, approachable style. The blend of Malbec and Syrah reflects the winemaker's intent to craft a wine that is both deeply flavoured and versatile at the table.
