

Famille Laudet Brume Rosé

Description:

Famille Laudet Brume Rosé is a delicate rosé from Gascony in south-west France. Light and refreshing, it captures the easy-going style of the region with bright fruit and crisp freshness, making it an ideal choice for relaxed summer drinking.

Tasting notes:

Aromas of strawberry, redcurrant, and citrus zest. The palate shows flavours of raspberry and watermelon, with lively acidity and a clean, dry finish.

Allergens: Contains sulphites.

Dish Pairing:

- Grilled prawns with lemon
- Tomato and basil salad
- Goat's cheese crostini
- Ratatouille
- Fresh berry tart

Talking Point:

The Laudet family has been rooted in Gascony since the 17th century, originally known for Armagnac before expanding into wines. Brume—meaning “mist”—pays tribute to the morning fogs that drift across the vineyards, helping preserve freshness in the grapes and shaping the vibrant character of this rosé.
