

Sottano Junior Malbec

Description:

Sottano Junior Malbec is a vibrant red wine from Mendoza, Argentina. Produced by the Sottano family, who have been crafting wines in the foothills of the Andes for generations, this Malbec captures the energy and approachability of the region's signature grape.

Tasting notes:

Aromas of ripe plum, blackberry, and violet. The palate is fruit-forward and smooth, with flavours of black cherry and cocoa framed by soft tannins and a fresh, balanced finish.

Allergens: Contains sulphites.

Dish Pairing:

- Grilled steak with chimichurri
- Slow-cooked beef empanadas
- Lamb burgers with spiced yoghurt
- Aubergine parmigiana
- Hard cheeses such as provolone

Talking Point:

The "Junior" label is Sottano's introduction to the world of Malbec, designed to show the fruit-driven, youthful side of Mendoza's flagship variety. Sourced from vineyards at the foot of the Andes, where cool nights help retain freshness, it reflects the Sottano family's focus on wines that are both expressive and approachable.
