

Bruno Andreu Chardonnay

Description:

Bruno Andreu Chardonnay Sans Alcool is a non-alcoholic white wine from the Languedoc, made from Chardonnay grapes. The wine undergoes vacuum distillation to remove alcohol while retaining its fresh fruit character and varietal expression.

Tasting notes:

Fresh notes of green apple, pear, and citrus. The palate is crisp and light with flavours of stone fruit and a clean, refreshing finish.

Allergens: Contains sulphites.

Dish Pairing:

- Grilled white fish with herbs
- Caesar salad
- Sushi rolls
- Roast chicken with lemon
- Soft goat cheese

Talking Point:

Produced by Bruno Andreu, known for crafting approachable and fruit-driven wines, this alcohol-free Chardonnay showcases the versatility of the grape in the Languedoc's Mediterranean climate, offering freshness and balance without the alcohol.
