

Bruno Andreu Sparkling Chardonnay

Description:

Bruno Andreu Sparkling Chardonnay Sans Alcool is a lively non-alcoholic sparkling wine crafted from Chardonnay grapes in southern France. After fermentation, the wine is gently dealcoholised through vacuum distillation, preserving the natural freshness before a fine sparkle is added.

Tasting notes:

Aromas of citrus and white peach with floral hints. The palate is light and refreshing, showing crisp green apple and delicate bubbles with a clean finish.

Allergens: Contains sulphites.

Dish Pairing:

- Canapés and light appetisers
- Fresh oysters or seafood platter
- Summer salads
- Grilled halloumi
- Fruit tart or pavlova

Talking Point:

This sparkling version highlights Bruno Andreu's innovative approach to winemaking, combining traditional French Chardonnay character with modern dealcoholisation techniques. The result is a celebratory, alcohol-free option with elegance and freshness.
