

Château Talbot 2005

Description:

From one of the most iconic vintages in recent history. The 2005 Château Talbot is deep ruby in colour and packed with black cherry, red berry and cedar notes. Two thirds Cabernet Sauvignon with the balance made up from Merlot, Petit Verdot & Cabernet Franc

Tasting notes:

Black Cherry, Raspberry, Forest Floor, Cedar, Tobacco

Allergens: Contains sulphites.

Dish Pairing:

- Beef Wellington
- Mushroom and herb pasta
- Hard Cheeses
- Charcuterie platter

Talking Point:

Château Talbot is named after the British general John Talbot, who was killed in the 1453 Battle of Castillon, which ended English rule in Bordeaux. It is one of the largest estates in Saint-Julien, a fact that is reflected in its substantial vineyard size and consistent, dependable reputation. The estate was classified as a Fourth Growth in the 1855 Bordeaux classification