

Maison des Voutes Macon Villages

Description:

Maison des Voûtes Mâcon-Villages is a fresh and approachable white from the southern part of Burgundy. Made from 100% Chardonnay, it is bright straw in colour and displays lively aromas of green apple, citrus, and white flowers. Lightly rounded on the palate with subtle hints of minerality and a crisp, clean finish, it captures the charm and elegance typical of Mâcon-Villages wines.

Tasting Notes:

Green Apple, Lemon, White Flowers, Pear, Light Minerality

Allergens: Contains sulphites.

Dish Pairing:

- Grilled sea bream or sole
- Chicken in a light cream sauce
- Goat's cheese tart
- Steamed vegetables with herb butter

Talking Point:

The name Maison des Voûtes refers to the vaulted cellars where the wine is aged, a traditional feature of Mâconnais wineries. These underground cellars provide a stable, cool environment that preserves the freshness and aromatic purity of Chardonnay, a hallmark of Mâcon-Villages wines
