

Alain Michelot Nuit Saint George Premier Cru La Richmone

Description:

Alain Michelot Nuits-Saint-Georges Premier Cru “La Richemone” is a rich and expressive Pinot Noir from one of the most respected family domaines in the Côte de Nuits. The wine comes from old vines grown on the limestone and clay slopes of the La Richemone Premier Cru vineyard, known for producing powerful yet refined expressions of Pinot Noir. Deep garnet in colour, it offers aromas of black cherry, violet, and earthy spice, with a full, structured palate and a long, savoury finish.

Tasting Notes:

Black Cherry, Violet, Earth, Spice, Forest Floor, Silky Tannins

Allergens: Contains sulphites.

Dish Pairing:

- Roast duck or venison
- Coq au vin
- Wild mushroom and thyme risotto
- Aged Burgundian cheeses

Talking Point:

Domaine Alain Michelot is a fourth-generation family estate in Nuits-Saint-Georges, known for its traditional approach and minimal intervention in the cellar. The La Richemone vineyard sits just south of the village and is prized for its ability to produce wines that balance the typical structure of Nuits-Saint-Georges with an elegance more often associated with neighbouring Vosne-Romanée.
