

Pierre Brisset Bourgogne Cote Dor Pinot Noir

Description:

Pierre Brisset Bourgogne Côte d'Or Pinot Noir is a beautifully balanced red that captures the elegance and energy of Burgundy's heartland. Sourced from vineyards around Meursault and Puligny-Montrachet, it offers more depth and refinement than many regional wines. Bright ruby in colour, it opens with aromas of red cherry, raspberry, and gentle spice. The palate is silky and pure, with fine tannins and a fresh, lingering finish that highlights its Côte d'Or origins.

Tasting Notes:

Red Cherry, Raspberry, Strawberry, Subtle Spice, Earth, Silky Tannins

Allergens: Contains sulphites.

Dish Pairing:

- Roast chicken with herbs
- Grilled salmon or tuna
- Mushroom tagliatelle
- Soft cheeses such as Brie or Reblochon

Talking Point:

Pierre Brisset is a Parisian-born winemaker who left a successful business career to pursue his passion for Burgundy. Producing only small quantities from carefully chosen parcels, he has quickly earned a reputation for precision and restraint. His Bourgogne Côte d'Or demonstrates how thoughtful vineyard sourcing and gentle winemaking can elevate a regional wine to near-village quality.
