

Condrieu M de Martial

Description:

Condrieu “M de Martial” is a white from the northern Rhône, made from 100% Viognier grapes and crafted to showcase the plush, aromatic style that defines this appellation. The wine is pale gold in colour, offering a rich bouquet of peach, apricot, honeysuckle and subtle spice. On the palate it is full-bodied and rounded, with a creamy texture, warm stone-fruit flavours and a long, luscious finish, a fine representation of Rhône Viognier at reasonable cost.

Tasting Notes:

Peach, Apricot, Honeysuckle, White Flowers, Spice, Stone Fruit, Rich Finish

Allergens: Contains sulphites.

Dish Pairing:

- Roast chicken with herbs and cream sauce
- Pan-seared scallops with butter and sage
- Pork tenderloin with apricot glaze
- Mild cheeses such as Brie or Camembert

Talking Point:

The appellation Condrieu is one of the few in France devoted exclusively to the white Viognier grape, making “M de Martial” part of a very distinctive Rhône tradition. Its aromatic intensity and richness — unusual among northern Rhône wines — stem from Viognier’s suitability to the region’s granite soils and sunny slopes, resulting in a wine that delivers warmth, fragrance and elegance in equal measure.
