

Description:

Hundred Hills Blanc de Blancs Library Release 2018 is a refined English sparkling wine made entirely from Chardonnay and crafted using the traditional method. Pale gold with fine, persistent bubbles, it shows the precision and freshness characteristic of high-quality sparkling Chardonnay, supported by extended ageing that adds depth and complexity.

Tasting Notes:

Green Apple, Lemon Zest, White Peach, Brioche, Toasted Almond, Mineral Finish

Allergens: Contains sulphites.

Dish Pairing:

- Oysters or shellfish
- Smoked salmon blinis
- Light fish dishes such as sea bass or Dover sole
- Soft cheeses like Brie or Camembert

Talking Point:

As a Library Release, this 2018 cuvée benefits from additional time ageing in the Hundred Hills cellars, allowing the Chardonnay to develop richer autolytic notes of brioche and almond while retaining the estate's hallmark crispness. The extended maturation highlights the impressive ageing potential of English sparkling wines made in exceptional vintages.
