

Lisbonita Tinto

Description:

Lisbonita Tinto is a smooth and approachable red wine from the Lisboa region of Portugal, an area known for its Atlantic influence and coastal vineyards. The blend typically features native Portuguese varieties such as Castelão, Aragonez (Tempranillo), and Touriga Nacional, producing a ruby-coloured wine with generous fruit and gentle spice. Fresh coastal breezes help maintain acidity and brightness, giving the wine an easy-drinking, versatile character.

Tasting Notes:

Red Cherry, Plum, Blackberry, Soft Spice, Light Herb, Smooth Tannins

Allergens: Contains sulphites.

Dish Pairing:

- Grilled chicken or pork
- Pasta with tomato-based sauces
- Charcuterie and hard cheeses
- Roasted vegetables

Talking Point:

Lisboa is one of Portugal's most diverse wine regions, where Atlantic winds cool the vineyards and allow native grape varieties to ripen slowly. Wines labelled "Lisbonita" are designed to showcase this relaxed, coastal style — fruity, friendly and perfect for casual drinking, reflecting the region's tradition of making wines that suit everyday Portuguese meals.
