

Torre del Falasco Garganega

Description:

Torre del Falasco Garganega is a fresh, approachable white wine from Veneto, made from the region's flagship grape. Pale straw in colour, it shows delicate aromas of pear, white peach and citrus, with a subtle almond note on the finish. Light to medium-bodied, the palate is clean and gently textured, offering refreshing acidity and a soft, rounded mouthfeel that makes it highly versatile at the table.

Tasting notes:

Pear, White Peach, Lemon Zest, Apple, Almond

Allergens:

Contains sulphites.

Dish Pairing:

- Grilled white fish
- Risotto with spring vegetables
- Antipasti and olives
- Soft cheeses

Talking Point:

Garganega is best known as the grape of Soave, where it has been grown for centuries on volcanic and limestone soils east of Verona. Torre del Falasco takes its name from a historic tower in the Valpantena area, and the wine reflects the traditional appeal of Garganega: gently aromatic, subtly textured and food-friendly, rather than overtly fruity or heavily oaked.
