

Boscendal The Rose Garden Rosé

Description:

Boscendal The Rose Garden Rosé is a bright and fruit-forward South African rosé, typically a blend of Merlot and Pinotage. Pale salmon-pink in colour, it shows vibrant aromas of ripe strawberry, raspberry and red cherry, with a subtle floral lift. The palate is soft and juicy, balanced by fresh acidity and a clean, refreshing finish, making it an easy-drinking yet well-balanced style.

Tasting notes:

Strawberry, Raspberry, Red Cherry, Mulberry, Floral Notes, Light Spice

Allergens:

Contains sulphites.

Dish Pairing:

- Grilled prawns
- Summer salads
- Charcuterie
- Light pasta dishes

Talking Point:

The wine takes its name from Boschendal's historic rose garden, which is one of the oldest and most extensive collections of roses in South Africa. The label reflects this heritage, and the wine itself is crafted to mirror the garden's bright, fragrant character—light, aromatic and designed for relaxed, everyday drinking rather than heavy structure.
