

Flores de Callejo Ribero del Duero

Description:

Flores de Callejo Ribera del Duero is a vibrant and approachable expression of Tempranillo, sourced from younger vines grown on the high plateau of Ribera del Duero. Deep cherry red in colour, it offers aromas of blackberry, black cherry and plum, complemented by hints of liquorice, violet and sweet spice. The palate is fresh and well-structured, with ripe tannins, balanced acidity and a long, fruit-driven finish.

Talking Point:

Bodegas Félix Callejo is a family-owned winery founded in 1989, but the family has been growing grapes in Ribera del Duero for generations. The vineyards are planted at elevations of up to 900 metres above sea level, where warm days and cool nights help Tempranillo develop intense fruit while retaining freshness. Flores de Callejo is named after the younger generation of the family, symbolising the future of the estate while showcasing the vibrant character of its younger vineyards.
